Humanities programs reductions in credit hours

Due to the university-wide recent revision in the number of credit hours needed in undergraduate programs for graduation, the Humanities department would like to make the following changes:

BS in Games and Experiential Media: Total credit hours reduced to 120 (6 credit hours eliminated from free electives). This change has been entered into CIM.

BS in Humanities: Total credit hours reduced to 120 (6 credit hours eliminated from free electives). This change has been entered into CIM.
