Please provide a summary and rationale for the requested program revision.

On May 21, 2024, the Social Sciences faculty unanimously voted to streamline the course requirements for the Public Policy minor. Under the new changes, students will only need to complete two specific courses, SSCI 106 and PS 313, along with any three additional courses from PS, SOC, or SSCI. Students currently enrolled in the minor may continue to fulfill their requirements under the previous guidelines.
