This has not succeeded in attracting students (currently there is only one).

Are there any students in this program?

Yes

TEACH-OUT PLAN

Provide the number of students, by level, who are currently in the program, and an estimated time to graduation (in years) for each level.

Level	Number of Students	Time to Graduation (in years)
U3	1	1

List any courses that will be discontinued and the term when they will no longer be offered.

All needed courses will continue to be offered for the next two years.

Please list what other options a student will be offered to complete their degree. Any plans for student academic and financial advising through this process.

As the needed courses will be offered, the student shall not need other options.

Please provide a communication plan to ensure students and other institutional stakeholders are informed of this closure and throughout the teach-out process. If you wish to include an attachment instead, please include it below.

Courses will continue to be offered, and students will be informed that they will be allowed to complete their degree without any disruption

Communication Plan Attachment

What contact information (name, phone number, email, etc.) will you provide for students and other stakeholders to ask questions about this program closure?

For the social sciences courses, two courses must be at the 300-level. Social sciences courses should also be chosen from at least two fields, and at least six credit hours must be in a single field. Students can take two SSCI courses and one PS course, or two PS courses and one SSCI course, but cannot take three SSCI courses.

Additional courses, including rotating topics courses, may be approved by the humanities or social sciences associate chairs.
